The Forever King - Wikipedia

The Forever King, March 12, 2001 Reviewer: A 1-year old reader from The North Pole, (Next to Santa's workshop.) I read The Forever King by Molly Cochran and Warren Murphy. To start, this is a wonderful book. First of all, the story had an intriguing plot along with great action. (The action scenes had fairly grotesque violence though.)

The Forever King Analysis - eNotes.com

The Forever King gave a fresh look on the story of King Arthur. It's the first book I've seen that doesn't recount the same story or tell the story from another characters view. The combo of old and new is a perfect mixture. This is a book every King Arthur lover needs to read.
