Where The Shadows Lie Fire

Description. After Sauron's first downfall, the One Ring normally appeared perfectly plain and featureless, but when heated in a fire, the inscription appeared in fiery letters on the Ring.. When Isildur cut the ring from Sauron's hand, it was burning hot, and so Isildur was able to transcribe the inscription before it faded. He described it to be of a style "of Eregion", and the mode to be

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Where the Shadows Lie: Fire

I think I preferred Where the Shadows Lie by Ridpath by a small margin, although it is odd how both these 'new-to-me' writers have concerned themselves with huge amounts of detail and research on witchcraft (Sigurdardottir) and folklore/Lord of the Rings, in the case of Ridpath. (Fire & Ice 2), which is just out - but still a bit expensive
